

Bringing On Your Own Celebration Cake

We are happy for you to bring your own cake on board to celebrate your event. However, please note & review the following points:

- Your cake must be served on plates; we do not permit cake to be served just on serviettes.
- We are happy for you to use either china or disposable plates. Please remember to bring forks!
- Don't forget a knife to cut the cake.

We can help....

If you'd prefer us to provide the plates & forks for your cake service, we have 3 options available (all options include cocktail napkins):

The small print....

- All prices quoted are liable for VAT at the current rate.
- If you would like us to organise plates & forks for you, this must be arranged at least 7 days in advanced.
- If your cake needs refrigeration once on board, you must check with us before placing your order & prior to your event to confirm that we have space available in our fridge.
- IMPORTANT - Candles, naked flames & indoor sparkle flares are not permitted under any circumstances.
